GENERAL SESSION

Creating Success Out of Chaos

Atlantic 1, 2 Dr. Robyn Odegaard

Humans are messy. Organizations developed by humans are even messier. What is going to happen next is always uncertain. Dr. Robyn has a huge variety of tools that have been proven to help create success out of chaos. Which tools work for which person or organizations varies. She enjoys diving into the deep end, embracing the uncertainty and actively figuring things out real-time in a dynamic way.

9:00 AM

GENERAL SESSION

Hot Topics in Labor Negotiations & Employment Issues

Atlantic 1, 2 Armando Riccio, Esq.

From hiring to discharge/discipline and negotiating everything in-between, New Jersey remains at the forefront of ever-changing employment practices, liabilities and, of course, negotiations with local unions. This session will cover some of the hottest topics anticipated at the negotiations table as well as the impact of recent court and agency decisions and legislative and regulatory changes.

10:30 AM

15-MINUTE BREAK

10:45 AM

CONCURRENT SESSIONS 1

Different Stages of Administration

Atlantic 3

Kathleen Capristo, Admin., Colts Neck Twp.; Tara Lovrich, Admin., Manalapan Twp.; and Jimmy Homsy, Admin. Tenafly Boro.

This session will cover topics including the transition from the private sector to public administration, taking on an administrator role for the first time and lessons learned as a long time public service professional. Good government is dependent upon our collective approach to pass on strategies and knowledge to our future civic leaders.

Electric Charging Stations - Are You Plugged In?

Atlantic 4

Steven Ward, Admin., Denville Twp. & George Koutsouradis, Bryan Electric

Environmentally sensitive capital projects are a benefit to all. With available grant money, you can help reduce your municipality's carbon footprint and reduce fuel dependency by installing electric vehicle charging stations and by purchasing electric vehicles for your municipality's fleet. This session will review the various EV charging stations that are available, potential grants, and the municipal EV Ordinance and fee structure.

AGENDA

Thursday, September 15

11:45 AM CONCURRENT SESSIONS 2

Atlantic 3

The Building Code Effectiveness Grading Schedule

Dale K. Thomure & Francis Lafferty, Jr., Verisk

BCEGS is designed to measure resources and support made available to the enforcement of building codes and the utilization of those resources at the community level.

Atlantic 4

Finding Your Next CFO

Joseph Monzo, Phoenix Advisors; Frank Pannucci, Admin., Pt. Pleasant/Bay Head Boros.; Anthony Mannino, CMFO, CCFO; Bonnie Brookes, NJDCA

It is becoming increasingly more difficult to fill vacancies in upper management municipal positions. Key among those is the Chief Financial Officer. This session will focus on challenges encountered with CFO vacancy, interviewing strategies, non-traditional options, and statutory guidelines for hiring, appointment, retention, and tenure.

12:45 PM LUNCH/VENDOR SPOTLIGHT - Atlantic 1, 2

Sponsored by ATON Computing

1:15 PM "Recruitment and Retention in the New Abnormal"

Ron Holifield, CEO, Strategic Government Resource

Atlantic 1, 2

The Great Resignation, COVID, political turmoil and Baby Boomer retirements have converged to make this the hardest time in history to recruit and retain employees at every level. It can be tempting to just pull the covers over your head and wait for things to go back to normal, but abnormal IS the new normal. This dynamic session will provide attendees with a roadmap for a successful future.

2:15 PM GENERAL SESSION

Atlantic 1, 2

Igniting Your Resources Utilizing Interns

Pam Borek, Township Clerk, Hillsborough Twp.; Bridget Anderson, Admin., City of Elizabeth; Andrea Wardrop, Admin., Leonia Boro.; Stephen Marks, Admin., Town of Kearny; & Matthew von der Hayden, Admin., Stafford Twp.

This session will entail an in-depth exploration into creating a successful partnership with colleges and universities while capitalizing on a valuable resource, namely, interns.

3:15 PM 15-MINUTE BREAK

3:30 PM News from Trenton

Lori Buckelew, Dep. Exec. Director, NJLOM

Atlantic 1, 2

This session will focus on legislation and regulations having the most recent impact on municipalities in the State of New Jersey.
